

Attending a Fish Fry: Discussion Questions

1. Have you ever been to a fish fry or a family picnic? In what ways was it similar to the fish fry in this painting? In what ways was it different?
2. Fish fries were a tradition in the Davis Bottom community. Do you have any traditions in your family or community? What are they?
3. How do we know that people in Davis Bottom ate fish and canned vegetables?
4. What would archaeologists find if they looked through the garbage from your school cafeteria? What would that tell them?
5. How do we know that families in Davis Bottom shared with each other and had community fish fries?
6. Can you think of a story one of your grandparents or some older person has told you about when they grew up?
